Your Trip Hosts

Lezlie Harrison: WBGO Host of *Come Sunday

Lezlie Harrison, vocalist extraordinaire, is always in a state of development, always raising the bar higher, pushing the limits of her God-given vocal gift. As a vocalist, she is both bold and subtle in her approach to the music she loves. Her vulnerability attends to the fragile matters of our collective human experience, while her optimism inspires us to rise above any of life's tribulations, to rejoice. Whether taking on a classic Jazz tune, Blues, Gospel, Soul, tracks from the American Song Book, or an original composition, Ms. Harrison imbues each note, each line of a song with her very own styling and personalized delivery. She carries that over to her regular spot on WBGO, the global leader in Jazz radio, where she is a regular curator and presenter, revealing the love and pride with which she regards America's music. A permanent fixture on the New York and global Jazz scene, Lezlie Harrison is among the three founding members of New York's world-renowned JAZZ GALLERY that includes the late Dale Fitzgerald and trumpeter Roy Hargrove.

On occasion Lezlie lends her regal presence to the stage as an actress, bringing to those endeavours, the same organic sensibility that she brought to the runways and photo studios of Paris some years a back. A product of two contrasting communities -- New York and North Carolina, Lezlie Harrison has been shaped by both and educated by her global experience.

Wayne Winborne, Executive Director of the Institute of Jazz Studies & WBGO Jazz Ambassador

Wayne Winborne is the Executive Director of the Institute of Jazz Studies, Rutgers University. He's a jazz record producer with extensive relationships with artists and producers throughout the genre, an historian and advocate, as well as a respected lecturer about jazz. This past June Wayne travelled to South Africa where he met with musicians, producers, the regional minister for arts and culture. In partnership with the Mayor of Cape Town, he is planning a series of joint programs and cultural exchanges. Mr. Winborne brings his passion, knowledge and relationships about and within the South African music and cultural scene to share with those traveling on the WBGO Joy of Jazz trip.
